

Web-based Privacy Policy Statement Nebraska Perinatal Depression Curriculum

This Privacy Policy pertains to the Nebraska Perinatal Depression Provider Website and describes potential information collected from website users in addition to precautions taken against unauthorized access or use of your information.

All areas of this website require registration except for the homepage. When you register, you are asked to provide identifying information such as your name, contact information and other personal information. On our registration screens, we clearly label which information is required for registration and which information is optional/may be given at your discretion.

NDHHS and PHAN have contracted with the marketing firm Snitily Carr to maintain the Nebraska Perinatal Depression Provider Website. Snitily Carr has implemented technology and security policies, rules and other measures to protect the personal data that they have under their control from unauthorized access, improper use, alteration, unlawful or accidental destruction and accidental loss. They also protect your information by requiring that their employees who have access to your information respect your confidentiality.

In addition, Snitily Carr uses security methods to determine the identity of registered users, so that appropriate rights and restrictions can be enforced for that user. Reliable verification of user identity is called authentication. Snitily Carr uses both passwords and user names to authenticate users. Users are responsible for maintaining their own passwords.
